

Reflect

Kelly reflects on how God took her on a journey that she was not expecting. If there's been a point in your life where you suddenly looked back and realized that God had brought you somewhere you weren't expecting, what was that journey like?

Based on this conversation with Kelly, we find that worship is much more than just singing but involves serving God and bringing Him glory in all that we do. In what ways throughout your day do you worship God?

As Vivian says, we were created to worship. Yet, sometimes, we can find ourselves misplacing our worship onto “functional gods” that can become greater than our worship of Jesus. What might function as a god in your life? How might you surrender that to your heavenly Father today?

Pray

God, Your Word promises that this life will not be easy, and yet I don't always turn to You first when things get hard. Thank you, Jesus, for having the sort of character that allows me to come to You at any time—thank You for always being available in my time of need. Open my eyes to see more of Your character and Your goodness on a daily basis so I will continue to trust You in all things.
